

The Jefferson County Humane Society, Inc. is a 501c3 charitable organization that operates a shelter for homeless, abandoned, and abused animals. Additionally, we have a growing foster program thanks to caring members within our community. We have five part-time staff and a group of volunteers who maintain the daily operations of the shelter and animal adoptions.

If you are interested in joining our efforts here in Jefferson County, please e-mail us at jchs@jchs.us or call the shelter at (850) 342-0244. Membership is $40 per year or membership is free to volunteers who provide service to our organization.

JCHS operates solely on generous donations from businesses and caring individuals; we receive no local or state funding. All contributions are welcome and greatly appreciated!

The 2011 Tournament is being held in conjunction with Barktoberfest scheduled for Saturday, October 15, 2011 out at Wolf Creek on US 90 East in Jefferson County.

The shelter lost their office to a tragic fire and has been on a mission to rebuild and expand the current facility. A piece of property located 2 miles East of Monticello off of Hwy 90 has been graciously donated to the Jefferson County Humane Society (JCHS). JCHS has a dream to build a new shelter at this new location. A generous community member has offered to match dollar for dollar up to $100,000 for all funds raised in the community toward this new shelter.

Supporting Barktoberfest is a great way to have fun and also support a great cause in our community. Everyone is encouraged to participate in the many events planned for that weekend and help the JCHS build their new home away from home.
